ABOUT FEMINIST HOTDOG

PODCAST

Feminist Hotdog is a show about finding joy through feminism and living our best feminist lives. Each episode features guests who embody feminist practices and share inspiring stories of radical resistance.

As the creator and host, I am committed to uplifting people and stories that don't fit the mainstream narrative about who feminists are and what they believe. If the show had a motto, it would be: Everything is a feminist issue!

Feminist Hotdog is part of the Loudspeaker internet radio and podcast network. The show streams on Wednesday nights at 7:00 PT/10:00 ET. New episodes pop up in all the usual podcast places (Apple Podcasts, Stitcher, Google Music, Spotify) every other Thursday.

WHO AM I?

Hi, I'm Adrienne van der Valk, host and creator of Feminist Hotdog. I created this podcast and this brand because I'm on a mission to show the world that feminism good for everyone. Having lived through the age of Trump, I believe it is more important than ever to practice anti-racist feminism and to recognize intersectionality in all aspects of our lives. As a sober person, I am also committed to breaking sexist stigmas around problem drinking and making clear connections between social justice and substance abuse disorders. I hope listeners of every identity find power and joy in these inspiring interviews so we can all fight for the fabulous, feminist world we deserve!

I currently live in Jersey City, New Jersey, with my husband and a pit bull named Zola.
